DELPHI ECONOMIC FORUM

ABOUT THE FORUM

French and Greek government officials and policymakers, economic experts, academics, and leading business figures convene in Paris on February 22nd 2027 to solidify the longstanding friendship of the two nations and discuss potential ways to expand cooperation across various sectors. These areas range from democracy & elections, security & defense, demographic challenges and more.

The expected outcomes include a renewed commitment to cooperation and identification of concrete action points, with a view to enhance regional stability and economic prosperity and strengthen ties between the two nations.
